Risk and Liability / General Release

The applicant releases and agrees to hold harmless Paragon Festivals including all festival hosts, villages, towns, municipalities, property owners, sponsors and vendors from any loss/theft or damage to their property, or any personal injury, however caused or inflicted, which they or their helpers sustain while setting up or participating in any Paragon event.

Paragon Festivals is not liable for failure to perform the party's obligations if such failure is as a result of Acts of God (including fire, flood, earthquake, storm, hurricane or other natural disaster), war, invasion, act of foreign enemies, hostilities (regardless of whether war is declared), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power or confiscation, terrorist activities, nationalization, government sanction, blockage, embargo, labor dispute, strike, lockout or interruption or failure of electricity or telephone service.

If accepted, the applicant agrees that photographs taken during the event which may include their booth, or their work/food may be used by Paragon Festivals for future promotional or publicity purposes.

The applicant also agrees to abide by the rules, policies, and guidelines developed for the festival as stated on Paragon's web site. The applicant also acknowledges and accepts that failure to follow these regulations may result in expulsion from any and all of this year's or future events.

Further, Paragon Festivals reserves the right to make the final interpretation of all rules and policies. Under no circumstance shall Paragon be liable to me for any CONSEQUENTIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR OTHER DAMAGES.

I have reviewed the show information, "Rules and Standards" and agree to the terms. Submitting my application for consideration to participate in the event(s) both are done with full acknowledgement of these terms.
